

41ST ANNUAL CLAREMONT PHILOSOPHY OF RELIGION CONFERENCE

Autonomy, Diversity, and the Common Good

FEBRUARY 6 - 8, 2020

FORUM HUMANUM SEMINAR Thursday, February 6th, 2020

Albrecht Auditorium, Claremont Graduate University

Southwest corner of Tenth Street and Dartmouth Avenue, Claremont, California

- 1:00 pm Tad DeLay (Michigan State University)
When Forbidden to Think: Against Appeals to the Common Good
- Andrew Stone Porter (Vanderbilt University)
Interdependence and the Common Good: An Ambiguous and Necessary Value for Social Ethics
- 2:00 pm Lucas Scott Wright (University of California, Irvine)
*Ha-Shomer ach'i anochi? Contemporary Reflections on the Logic of Assimilation,
The Jewish Question and Jewish Philosophies of Alterity*
- Raffael Sommerhalder (University of Zürich)
Fight the Divide: Karl Barth's Perichoretic Conception of Autonomy and Diversity as a Fresh Impact on Modern Philosophical Debates
- 3:00 pm Coffee
- 3:30 pm Deborah Casewell (Liverpool Hope University)
Autonomy, Diversity, and the Common Good: On Decreation and Obligation
- Kevin McCabe (Seton Hall University)
Reclaiming Autonomy for a Theology of Intellectual Disability
- 4:30 pm Coffee
- 5:00 pm Flora Liuying Wei (University of Glasgow)
Zehou Li's Theory of Two Morals: Balancing Liberal Individualism and Traditional Religious Morals
- Henry Udoka Omeike (Fordham University)
The Igbo Apprenticeship System (Imu-Ahia) and Anthropological Solidarity: Reimagining Common Good and Autonomy in Africa's Economic Context
- 6:00 pm Yunkwon Yoo (Claremont Graduate University)
Hegel on Autonomy, Diversity, and the Common Good
- Micha Johannes Kuhn (University of Münster)
The Self and the Other: An Anthropological Dialogue between Hartmut Rosa and Eberhard Jüngel

FOR MORE INFORMATION AND REGISTRATION PLEASE VISIT www.cgu.edu/pofrconference

School of Arts and Humanities, Claremont Graduate University, 831 N. Dartmouth Avenue, Claremont, CA 91711-6160