

THIRD ANNUAL RELIGIONS IN CONVERSATION CONFERENCE

Food and Faith

COMPARATIVE RELIGIOUS DIETARY CODES

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 14TH, 2009
MUDD AUDITORIUM AT CLAREMONT SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY
1325 N. College Ave., Claremont, CA

The program will include introductions to the health codes of Islamic, Jewish, Hindu, Zoroastrian, Protestant, Catholic, Coptic and LDS faiths. The keynote speaker will address the significance of the relationship of food and religion. Speakers from each tradition will participate on one of the following panels: Fasting, Eucharist, Identity.

11:00 AM	Keynote Address
12:30 PM	Vegetarian Lunch
1:45 PM	Session 1: The Eucharist
3:00 PM	Session 2: Fasting
4:45 PM	Session 3: Food & Identity
6:30 PM	Feast Foods Dinner

Lunch & Dinner are included with conference registration. Registration is free and open to the public. In place of registration fee we are asking for donations for the local food bank. Registration closes at midnight on November 10th. Please see website for details:

<http://www.cgu.edu/pages/5456.asp>